IRMA FITCH

rout may be taken in tide water beween the 1st of May and the 1st of 'ebruary of the following year with awful nets of not less than seven and half inch meshes, free to float with he tide or current.

* * *

Charles J. Kilpatrick, the amateur hampion half mile runner, sailed last veek for England, where he is to run a eries of matches with E. C. Bredin aving, after mature consideration, de ded to join the professional ranks for ist this one object. His manly letter f explanation and justification of his ction in this particular appeared in a cent issue of The Spirit of the Times

A new velvet collar makes your over oat look like new. Golden Wes lothing Renovatory, 12 Montgomery reet, Telepone, Main 1157.

For tailor-made jackets, go to Goodan's, 124 Turk street.